

Why work for Keillar?

Because we like to think we are different. We treat our people as individuals and understand that a work / life balance is essential. With very little staff turnover we encourage an open and honest working culture where ideas can be shared and individuals are encouraged to speak their mind! We don't just ask you to come to work we want you to enjoy it!

Why should you consider working with us?

If you want to be part of a team environment then you're in the right place. We believe we can achieve more together than we can as individuals and that's why we listen to what you have to say. Having a happy working environment makes it a productive one and that's what Keillar employees have been enjoying for many years.

Tell me more! What are the specifics?

Okay so you're interested, good; well let us tell you what you get here at Keillar.

The important stuff:

- A competitive salary
- An opportunity to earn uncapped bonus
- Competitive holiday entitlement
- Existing business channels, clients and candidates base
- A non-contributory pension scheme
- Training and development that's tailored to you
- Career opportunities

The really important stuff

- An open and honest work environment that values your input
- A true team environment
- A company that believes in a work / life balance
- A flexible working environment that wants to fit around you too!
- Quarterly and annual incentives

The really really important stuff

- We like to socialise after work too!
- We don't believe in a heavy handed management approach
- There are no big egos here - just professionals who want to get on in life

What are we looking for?

It's essential that we surround ourselves with the right type of people and personality is just as important as experience or ability. Here's what we are looking for:

Your Knowledge

Understanding of the Financial Services markets
An acute awareness of the importance of candidate and client management.

Your Skills

Excellent Interpersonal/communication Skills
Well organised and a multitasker
Smart appearance with a professional attitude

Your qualifications and experience

Must have financial services experience preferably within financial services sales
Recruitment experience would be advantageous although not essential as full training will be given

A few words from our Managing Director.

We treat everyone properly and fairly – candidates, clients and colleagues. Your role is to help both clients solve their business issues through the recruitment of the right people and candidates solve both life and career concerns through finding them the correct role. In addition you need to be able to develop business and have a proactive approach to life that means taking responsibility. You are treated in an adult manner so if you prefer being micro-managed, then this is not the role for you!

So what do I do now?

Well that's the easy bit! All you have to do now is send you CV along with a covering letter to david@keillar.com and we will get right back to you!